

The Six Truths That You Must Teach Your Children, Part 1
Truth #1: Jesus loves me—even though I am
broken and living in a broken world.

Generation	% Christian	% Attend Church
Pre 1927	90%	75%
Silent Gen (1928-45)	84%	61%
Baby Boomers (1946-64)	76%	49%
Gen X (1965-80)	67%	46%
Millennials (1981-96)	49%	35%
Gen Z (1997-2013)	36%	28%

Six Beliefs of Today’s Culture of Self-Expressionism

- 1) Humans are inherently good (especially me).
- 2) The world will inevitably get better . . . primarily because of technology.
- 3) Each one’s happiness and personal self-expression represents the highest good that anyone can hope for.
- 4) Anything that restricts my self-expression, individual freedom, or perceived happiness must be reshaped or rejected.
- 5) Traditional institutions are the primary source of evil and sustain systematic oppression.
- 6) If you do not approve of my choices of self-expression, that lack of approval must be deconstructed or destroyed.

What truths do your children need to be certain of in order to counter the devastating effects of spiritual attack?

Truth #1: Jesus loves me—even though I am broken.

John 3:16	Romans 8:38-39	Psalm 109:26
Romans 5:5-8	2 Cor. 13:11-14	Micah 7:18
Mark 10:21a	2 Thess. 2:16	Galatians 2:20
John 11:5	Revelation 1:5	Ephesians 2:4
John 13:1	Psalm 52:8	Ephesians 5:2
John 20:2a	Psalm 66:20	1 John 4:7-16