

The Mission Matters Most
Matthew 28:19-20
Acts 15:36-41

God's mission is not dependent upon your complete understanding of all that He is doing.
Acts 16:6-7

Our mission is carried forward when you invest in the people that are open to your influence.
Acts 16:13-15

The mission is not constrained to only move forward when your motives are perfectly pure—they seldom are.
Acts 16:16-18

The mission is refined, NOT defined, by our circumstances.
Acts 16:19-24

Our mission is best seen when our actions stand in juxtaposition to the expectations of the world.
Acts 16:25

God's mission cannot be constrained by laws or jails. In fact, He is fond of using persecution to advance the Gospel.
Acts 16:26-28

The mission is the conveyance of the Gospel to any person who receives Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.
Acts 16:29-34