

What To Do When You Don't Know what To Do
Live Out the Fullest Expression of Love
Philippians 1:8-11

Many of us don't know what to do because we don't know who we are. Being is a precondition to doing.

Who are we? We are recipients and conduits of his divine love.

Now we know what to do because we know who we are. We are to live out the fullest expression of the love of God.

What does the affection of Christ look like?

- Living in the affection of Christ results in a constantly abounding love.
- Living in the affection of Christ increases our experiential knowledge and our spiritual discernment.
- Living in the affection of Christ proves the excellence of what really matters in life.
- Living in the affection of Christ authenticates our sincerity and moves us away from sin.
- Living in the affection of Christ fills us with the fruit of righteousness.
- Living in the affection of Christ results in the praise and glory of God.