

Sharing the Easter Story

Introduction

Before you start to share the story, remember your commitment to be a friend of sinners.

People don't care what you believe, until they believe that you care.

Sharing the Easter story starts with knowing who Jesus is.

- Jesus is God.
- Jesus is man.
- Jesus is perfect

Jesus is perfect because . . .

- He was born of a virgin.
- He never succumbed to do wrong.
- He didn't choose the wrong and he didn't omit the right.

The claims of Jesus demand a response.

There are only three possible responses:

- 1) Jesus was a lunatic.
- 2) Jesus was a liar.
- 3) Jesus is the Lord.

Jesus is Lord, but that doesn't make Him your Lord. You have to receive Him as Lord and Savior by giving your life to Him.
