

The Easter Story is Bigger than You Think Jesus Enters into Jerusalem

There are certain irrefutable truths that the Bible speaks of over and over again.

John 1:1-14

The Bible uses prophecy to demonstrate to us that history is not a series of haphazard events controlled by human circumstances.

The event that we commemorate as Palm Sunday is one example of the fact that it is all scripted by God.

Zechariah 9:9; Matthew 21:1-11

Zechariah's prophecy described what Jesus' entry to Jerusalem would look like; Daniel prophesied when it would happen.

Daniel 9:25-26a

Are there any prophecies that speak to what is going on right now? YES! Consider Zechariah 9:1-8.

- It speaks of four distinct nations, Israel, Syria, Lebanon, and Gaza in military conflict.
- It speaks of the end of military hostilities.
- It speaks of the end of a separate government for Gaza.
- It speaks of the different ethnicities living together in harmony in Ashdod.
- It speaks of the spiritual redemption of Gaza.

Zechariah also prophecies of the next entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem and the redemption of Israel.

Zechariah 12:10, 13:1
