

An Eloquent Faith in a Stuttering World
Exodus 3:1 - 4:17

One of the greatest tests of our faith is when God asks us to make a change in our lives.

The changes that are hardest are when He asks us to do something . . .

- that we don't want to do, OR
- we don't think we can do.

The world stutters, "I can't do it."

God answers, "I know, I am going to do it through you!"

The world stutters, "I don't even really know who you are."

God answers, "I am the one who never changes, I am who I am."

The world stutters, "People will not believe me."

God answers, "I will do miracles in your life so that they can believe."

The world stutters, "But, I'm not gifted in that way."

God answers, "I am the one who made you, I decide what gifts to give you."

The world stutters, "Please send someone else."

God answers, "I will send someone with you."

Benediction: One of the most eloquent faith statements of all time.
