

A Passover Faith in an Egyptian World
Exodus 12:3, 5-8, 11-13, 19-20

Egypt is a picture of the world system.

- Egypt is a place where everyone is a slave, but almost no one knows it.
- Egypt is a place where God's authority is denied and mankind pretends that he is powerful.
- Egypt is a place where spiritual stubbornness results in the judgement of God.

Passover is a picture of the salvation of God.

- Passover points us to the fact that we need someone from outside of ourselves to deliver us from our sin.
- Passover acknowledges that God is sovereign and the only proper response to His authority is our submission.
- Passover is a picture of the substitutionary sacrifice that takes away our sin and places God's punishment on Jesus.

The Feast of Unleavened Bread is a picture of the Christian life.

- Just as the Passover is a picture of our salvation, the Feast of Unleavened Bread is a picture of our sanctification.
- Leaven represents sin in the Bible. So, the Feast of Unleavened Bread symbolizes overcoming sin.
- It is one thing to get Israel out of Egypt; it is altogether another thing to get Egypt out of Israel!
