

An Adopting Faith in an Orphan's World
Jehoshabeath & Jehoiada
2 Kings 11:1ff and 2 Chronicles 22:11ff

Takeaways from the story:

1. There are times when spiritual leaders must get involved with government in order to impede evil.
2. There are two great commitments required in stopping evil and providing spiritual freedom and liberty.
 - Being willing to die to provide liberty.
 - Being willing to live sacrificially to protect liberty.
3. Before you can effectively make either of these commitments, you must be the one that breaks the generational sin of your family's thinking and starts living unselfishly.
4. One of the best sacrifices you can make to help ensure freedom for the coming generation is to take responsibility for a child who is not your own, and mentor them to know the Lord.
