

What To Do When You Don't Know What To Do
Stop and Consider What You Are Certain Of
Philippians 1:6

One of the great spiritual battles in the human soul is fear.

When your life is full of uncertainty and anxiety, stop and think about all that you are certain of.

Paul has three categories for the things that he is absolutely sure of:

I am certain of "the One . . ."

- He is all-knowing, all-present, and all-powerful.
- He is perfect, good, and loving.
- He is persistent and intrusive in calling you to his love.

I am certain that "He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion . . ."

- The beginning of God's work in you is justification.
- The completion of God's work in you is glorification.
- He brings you to completion through the work of sanctification.

I am certain of ". . . the day of Jesus Christ."

- There will be a day when life is complete.
- That day comes either by death or the coming of Jesus Christ.

Benediction: What should I do today? Think about what you are certain of and join God in completing the good work in you!
