Dr. Paul Jones

Everyone experiences grief and sadness; but not everyone experiences the joy and victory that can follow.

2 Corinthians 7:9-11

Many pretend that there is nothing to be sad about. . .eventually they have to pretend that there is something to be joyful about.

Matthew 27:37-38

Victory doesn't automatically arrive because you once experienced sadness; you must continue to sow faithfulness even through the hard season.

Galatians 6:8-9

There are those among us who can see the divine conclusion, they are the ones who can withstand the tears and the sadness of the present.

Hebrews 12:1-2
