

A Revolutionary Faith:
A Thankful Faith in an “I Got Lucky” World

How do I begin to experience the blessings and the power of God?

- Remaining immersed in truth, which is the Word of God.
- Relating to God as Father.
- Submitting to the Lordship of Christ.
- Loving Jesus above all others.
- Seeking God’s purpose, plan, and glory.
- Staying committed to the people of God.
- Living as a witness, sharing the good news with others.

Lesson #8

Revolutionary Faith can’t help itself—it must express itself in worship and thanksgiving!

Jesus points out the aspects of true worship. Luke 7:36-49

- 1) True worship cannot skip the essentials of life.
- 2) True worship cannot come solely from the intellect.
- 3) True worship cannot exist between equals.

True worship always includes thanksgiving. Luke 17:11-18

- 1) You can be thankful to someone without worshipping them—but you can’t worship God without being thankful.
- 2) You can look at blessings as “getting lucky,” or you can recognize the source of all good things.
- 3) You can experience the physical healing of God without experiencing the spiritual healing of God.

All salvation stories end the same way. Luke 17:19; 7:50
