

The Christmas Collision
Jesus: Name Above All Names, Part 5
King of kings and Lord of lords

Above all of the Christmas distraction, the true seeker has to realize that the incarnation of Christ, and his coming to earth, must be seen as an intervention.

People are always . . .

- Going the wrong way.
- Doing the wrong thing.
- Believing the wrong ideas.

Christmas is . . .

- A course correction.
- An intervention.
- A validation of truth.

The world believes that people are basically good . . . or at least good enough to get to heaven.

Christmas Question: Why would God make the greatest sacrifice in human history if we were good enough to get to heaven on our own?

The world believes that you must be canceled if you stand in the way of my personal choices for perceived happiness.

Christmas Question: Why did Jesus cancel himself in order to achieve what was necessary to procure your peace and joy?

The world believes that we are all here by random.

Christmas Question: How could Jesus be called King of kings and Lord of lords if he wasn't in charge of the universe?
